FINDINGS

1. AUTHORIZATION:

PPRA 2010 §404; 27 DCMR §§1304, 1700, and 1701; and D.C. Official Code §2-354.04.

2. MINIMUM NEED:

The District of Columbia (“District”), Child and Family Services Agency (“CFSA”) has a need to enter into contracts with individuals to serve as Professional Foster Parents to provide care twenty-four (24) hours per day, seven (7) days a week to youth in the District’s child welfare system, hereinafter referred to as clients.

The period of performance shall be for a period of one year from date of award.

3. ESTIMATED FAIR AND REASONABLE PRICE:

$390,000.00

4. FACTS WHICH JUSTIFY A SOLE SOURCE CONTRACT:

CFSA advertised its recruitment for foster parents and conducted four (4) informational sessions. 31 participants attended these sessions. A profile created by CFSA was distributed to all 31 participants. A total of 10 participants returned the completed profiles. A panel of four (4) Licensed Independent Clinical Social Workers (LICSW) reviewed the profiles.

Nine (9) out of the ten (10) applicants that submitted their profiles were invited to interview. The interview panel consisted of three members and the interview consisted of two parts. Part one focused on gathering information on the individual’s motivation to become a professional foster parent and their experience in working with the teen population. The second part focused on providing the individual with various behavioral scenarios to gauge their ability to handle crisis and incidents.

Individuals were scored between 1 (unfavorable) to 5 (highly favorable). The highest score an individual could receive was 25. Individuals were scored in the areas of:

1. Experience
2. Engagement
3. Flexibility/Adaptability
4. Communication
5. Conflict Resolution

Individuals with a score of 20 or above were considered. Four (4) out of the 9 individuals received a score of 20 or higher.

One of these four individuals, one had a client placed in their home. However, this placement demonstrated the individual's inability to manage the placement and eventually led to the placement disrupting in the middle of the night. This left a total of three individuals. CFSA intends to enter into contracts with the remaining three (3) individuals to serve as Professional Foster Parents.

5. CERTIFICATION BY THE CONTRACT SPECIALIST:
